WILD WITH FEAR.

One Town Shuts Itself Off From

Railroad Tracks Torn Up and Other Precautions Taken.

New Orleans, La., Sept. 21.—It is reported that a portion of the railroad track between Harrison and Vicksburg has been torn up by frightened people in order to force trains to stop. There is good ground for believing the report true. There is scarcely any fear that any refugees will be able to reach Louisiana or New Orleans by river, for Jackson has been isolated and people from there have no means of reaching the Mississippi river. Vicksburg and Natchez have both quarantined most strictly and railroads connecting them with Jackson have been obliged to go out of business for the present. There is evidently a reign of terror in and about Jackson, and a gentleman on his way from Birmingham to Vicksburg, who was forced to come to New Orleans from Meridian, said this morning that he never saw people so frightened as the Mississippians, who are panic stricken with fear that the scourge may become general in their state.
Special trains as required will be sent to Jackson by the Illinois Central to carry north all who desire to go.

STRICT QUARANTINE IN TENNESSEE.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 21.— Chattanooga has instituted a strict quarantine against all infected points.
No one is permitted to enter the city without giving a satisfactory account of himself. Quarantine officers board every train and fifty-one are thus employed. The city council has adopted ordinances inflicting a fine of $500 on any one entering the city from any infected district, and a large reward is offered for the apprehension and conviction of such offender and for the conviction of anyone harboring such refugee. The Memphis and Charleston railroad trains stopping at Decatur or within twenty miles on either side are for-bidden entrance. Meridian, Miss., was quarantined against to-night, owing to the report that cases of yellow fever had occurred there.

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 21.—The county health board to-day held a meeting and decided to rigidly enforce quarantine. Any refugees coming from the infected districts of the south within the borders of Davidson county will be arrested, fined and imprisoned, as the law directs, and detained for a period of ten days. Persons who harbor such refugees or fail to report to the health board their presence, when known, will be subject to arrest, fine and imprisonment to the full extent of the law. The law permits the arrest and a fine of $50 in the case of any person known to stop in Nashville from the infected district.

West Point, Miss., Sept. 21.—West Point to-day closed her gates not only against the fever stricken districts, but against the world. Armed police are scouring the city.

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 21.—In consequence of reliable information that there is a case of sickness, supposed to be fever, in Greenville, the Montgomery board recommended to-night quarantine against Greenville, which was so ordered. Mayor Reese telegraphed to-night to Surgeon General Hamilton and Senator Morgan as follows: "Recent developments show yellow fever to be epidemic at Decatur—another proof of the inefficiency of the quarantine system existing in the different cities south. I ask that the government quarantine service be put in force at Decatur without delay to protect this city and section."

It is rumored that 2,000 left Meridian, Miss., to-day on account of reported yellow fever there, though dispatches say it is a false alarm.

ANTICIPATIONS SUSTAINED.

The Golden Give a Graceful Presentation of the "Little Duchess"

The Golden gave a lively presentation of their excellent comedy, "The Little Duchess," last evening at the Perkins Grand. This makes the second appearance of this famous troupe upon the stage here, and last night's performance was fully up to the high worth that the play of the evening previous had led all to anticipate. Miss Kitty De-Lorme as the "Little Duchess" was frequently applauded for her graceful movements and the perfect skill she exhibited as an artist, while Mr.
Lloyd Neal in the character of ludicious "Old Peter" indulged the mirthful proclivities of the large and elegant audience present. Harry Robinson, "James Carter," the lawyer, fairly kept the auditors in laughter by his "unscrupulous" acts, which were so clearly indicative of his motives in the case. On the whole the comedy was a clear and lucid cast of the triumph of genuine love over mockery and intrigue in matrimonial make-ups. The company is highly deserving of a large patronage.—Springfield Daily.

Grand Rally.

SPRUCE, Mo., Sept. 22, 1888.

One of the most pleasurable and enthusiastic rallies of the season occurred in Deepwater township on last Thursday evening. Pursuant to a previous call, the Cleveland and Thurman club, numbering about 85 members, met at Spruce for the purpose of perfecting arrangements to participate in the grand rally at Butler on the 27th inst. On arriving there an invitation was found awaiting them from our next representative, Hon. J. B. Newberry, to come in a body to his place of residence, as he was in need of assistance in tapping a keg of cider. Business was at once postponed, one of Bates county's finest string bands called together, when the Capt. called "To horse!" and with the band at their head, drew rein in an incredible short time in front of Mr. Newberry's commodious residence.

The host immediately made a smiling appearance, when the club gave three hearty cheers for the Hon.
J. B. Newberry. The guests were made welcome, a time spent in social converse, when music was proposed.
The band, consisting of Prof. Drake of Johnston, Messrs. Murphy, Slayback and Son of Spruce, with piano accompaniment by the host's charming daughters, was fine enough to charm the most fastidious ear. Its appreciation was demonstrated by the delight depicted on every countenance during the rendering of their own selections, and the immediate demand for some favorite piece of some one present if there was the least sign of cessation. The bringing in of cider and apples finally hushed the music, and although the former was neither hard nor spiked, it was of an excellent quality, and disappeared rapidly. But the rally reached its climax when the doors were thrown open to two spacious dining rooms and the guests invited out to partake of oysters, served in elegant style, roast beef, cheese, cakes, etc., prepared by Mrs. Newberry, who is possessed of rare culinary ability. Each one seemed to feel himself a committee of one to dispose of oysters, and bent all his energies in that direction. Finally all, even the veterans, had to succumb, except Lon Murphy, who, in a last effort to empty his well-filled plate, was disabled and had to be carried from the field by his comrades. On reviving a little, he ac-knowledgeed himself slightly disfigured, but "still in the ring." More music and the sampling of the host's choicest Havanas followed. As all things earthly must have an end, all reluctantly made their departure near the "wee sma' hours," after receiving the wishes of the host for "happy dreams and prosperity." If it is more blessed to give than receive pleasure, surely Mr. Newberry must have been left a happy man.

A meeting, however, has been called for another evening and old Deepwater expects to make a fine showing in welcoming its first choice for governor on the 27th inst.
